A dispatch of yesterday says that certain son-afors are resolved to call up the Kellogic case again, resolved that they will not have Kellogic a member of their august body any longer Saulabury, of Delaware, is understood to be the leader of this new and last measure of lesparation, undertaken as the snal hope of keep-ing a sun debicoratio majority in the sensition. To be sure, Sponord, who equissted Hellog 3's nest is dead, and has been some time buried; and to be sure also the senate did once, after a n ost thorough and exhaustive review of the respec-tive claims of Kellogg and Spofford, award the sest to Kellogg. It is true that Kellogg's elec tion was not regular; and spofford's was still less no. The two were the product of the double-headed government that for a consi orable time existed in Louisiana. But the sen ate is the sole judge of the qualifications of certified senators, and the senate having care fully inquired into the validity of Kellogy's certificate, declared it correct. For the same setato, at a later session, which is control ed by a majority of the opposite political party, to reverse its own decision is for it to establish a most mischioyous and dangerous procedent: If such a precedent be once adopted no senator could possibly feel secure in his seat, in the event of a change in the political personnel of the majority. The burning desire of Saulsbury to unseat Kellogg for unwerthiness is open .o a suspicion of being actuated by other motives. In fact, it is commonly believed that Saulsburg' is but the engineer employed by the democratic majority to hoist Kallogg from his seat in order to give it to a democrat who will add one more vote to the fast diminishing democratic majoryour to the fast diminishing permornite majo-ity. It is probable, however, that the scheme will fail. The attempt is rendered still more about by the fact that since Spofford's death the governor of Louisiana has appointed a confestant who puts in a claim for the seat # Spofford's successor to a position to which the newhat strange that nearly all the books-adopted in this state are published by a single house, although very excellent books are published by a dozen or more houses.

sa the National Journal of Education, read the advertisements of the various publishing adversements of the various patterns, houses, and then form to the list of looks adopted in our state and he cannot but be surprised to note that nearly all of them are published by a single house, viz.: A. S. Barnes & Comman.

It will be noticed that, by the last adoption on things would be guarded against, but such is not the case.

It will be noticed that, by the last adoption by the soon pany superintendents, only one of A. S. Barmes & Co.'s books was dropped. Clarke's Beginners' Grammar—and this was replaced by another and more expensive book. This interests of the schools could not have been mach considered, class the present absence mach considered, class the present absence mach considered, of solt the present absence make the considered of sold and systematic consistent combination as Bill's grammar and Clarke's normal grammar! What a fine time will the teachers have in administering this ipleudid present pitted.

Soveral complete and systematic courses could have been selected from at a cust of little more than half the present mixture.

The interest of A. S. Barnes & Co. must have been allocated from at a cust of little more than half the present mixture.

The interest of A. S. Barnes & Co. must have been allocated from at a cust of little more than half the present mixture.

The interest of A. S. Barnes & Co. must have been. "duly-constituted," in this transaction. But thuir, interests must be still our been been disregarded. For example: Why continue to use Most theirly of lower book course in geography, when a much better and chapter course could like two books? This old series of geographics has been in use in this plate for about twenty years. They coult it least to book course (although these are inferior to several others,). But then plate the present this book is of the present books from the list of A. S. Barnes & Co., but twenty years. They coult in the book course of our books and to be taken from other publishing houses. The force of this statement four jears. Mineteen or twenty books in all have been taken from the list of A. S. Barnes & Ca., but some of our books and to be taken from they publishing houses. The force of this statement will be apparent when we note the fact that none of theyremaining books could have been supplied from this house.

Now how does it happen that this is the result of our texthook adoptions if it he not true that some of our superistendents yiolded to the weighty arguments; which are known to have been simployed by tile said A. S. Barnes & Co.—Although into provided for by law, a couronion consisting of an of the trenty-three amperipsidents was organized, in Salem has August to "talk up" the book question. It was about this find this two of A. S. Barnes & Co?s agents arrived in this state to "work up" its selfamen book question. This convention and owned to meet at the call of the president and secretary, some time in December leing mentioned as a suitable time.

In the interim a goody correspondence was carried on between interestic parties, and a audical time. The theorem is goody correspondence was carried on between interestic parties, and a audical that the two was a suitable time.

Engiased and the Irish Question.

From Happer's Majazine for January.

The Irish situation, is simple. England will not apparent to separation. The instinct of self-defence provents. Separation would not cure the Celine hatred of the Saxon, and England would said saidy dear that Ireland would be made an appuration is impossible. At Glodatene, the best of the British government, is a stateman of proved power in England, and of proved freedliness to Ireland! Mr. Forster, the Irish semicary of Association of the Prince of the British government, is a stateman any of Association for correct cylis and abuses. There was a stateman of the Committee of the Saxon of the Saxon which was to consider that while the government could mot beat the woos of Ireland with a bough or it. a year, yet that great and with a bough or it. a year, yet that great the successed with the Afghan and Zulu, and easter to combine with which the Saxon with which its great cocces had misseded the country, he is also menaced by an Irish question forced upon him by Mr. Parent.

aristoralic element in it was feared, containly a tory siluminate atom would be a hundred-fold more authorized and in the strictude of the peers on the compensation bill showed the full force of tory heatility. Mr. Harnell must know that sgainst brish violence England of all parties would solidly sustain the government, and that remedial legislation would be made more difficult. He may be legal, y acquitted upon his trial, but he is morally condemned for through is country that a heart done on the ng his country into a hazardous positio

JERE BLACK'S RECENT LETTER. orge Tichnor Carity after him with a Sharp

In a letter to President Jewett, of the Eric Raifroad, Mr. Curia reviews Mr. Black's recent letter to the New York chamber of commerce, and takes issue with him on his constitutional and legal definition on the status of the raifroads in blor relations to the public. He says: "It is a new deep rime to me that property, premised with the private franks of a corporation, becomes public property seemse that crity inculated with the private funds of a corporation, becomes public property because that corporation is a common carrier, or because the state has, for reasons of, public benefit, authorized the beorgaration to acquire lands, by an exercise of the power of content domain, paying therefor a just compressation. The fundamental question is whether the judge association that railroads are public highways and that the property in them is public property is true. Judge Black is always togical; and if his promises are sound. I should assent to his inference in report to the right of the state to control the use of its own property. But I days his premises, such consequently, I reject his conclusions.
